Applying for Membership

To become a member of Limestone Trout Club you must be sponsored by two members, submit a membership application, and have an interview with the Membership Committee. If you do not know any club members, we will introduce you to someone who will act as your sponsors.

After the membership interview, the Membership Committee will make a determination regarding your eligibility. If approved, we will invite you to become a member of Limestone Trout Club. When you accept, you will receive a waiver to sign and return, the Member Handbook, an invoice covering membership fees (Stockholder members will also be invoiced for stock), membership card with access codes, and ID to wear when visiting LTC.

New members must contact our Property Manager, Scott Simko, to arrange for a two-hour introduction and orientation to LTC, which is conducted at the club property. This is mandatory for new members.
